

SENATE RESOLUTION 138
By Haynes

A RESOLUTION to commend Joseph Cade Morgan for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Cade Morgan is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Senator Joe Haynes; Cade's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at Tennessee Technological University (TTU), where he is highly regarded by his peers, Cade has achieved academic success and maintained a 3.9 GPA while majoring in Political Science, minoring in German, and participating in numerous extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, donating his time and many talents to numerous worthy organizations, he is a member of Alpha Mu Gamma, a Foreign Language Honors Group; the TTU Democrats; and the TTU German Club, which he serves as Vice President; and

WHEREAS, Cade Morgan graduated from Marion County High School and attended Chattanooga State Technical Community College before transferring to TTU; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morgan was selected to study abroad during the summer of 2005 by the Dohto University Exchange Program in Japan, a testament to his academic abilities and sterling character; he was recently accepted to again study abroad at Dohto University for one academic year beginning in the fall; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further his studies, Cade Morgan brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2006 session of the One Hundred Fourth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, evincing an unflagging commitment to excellence in every endeavor, Mr. Morgan has worked assiduously during this legislative session to promote the estimable principles of democracy, fairness, and compromise in the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, an intern of uncommon devotion and singular talent, Mr. Morgan has distinguished himself as an exceptional individual of the utmost integrity and character; and

WHEREAS, Cade attained the advanced age of 21 during his internship, which is surprising, because he exhibits maturity beyond his age due to the positive influence of his "chi"; and

WHEREAS, heeding his mother's advice to always be prepared, Cade dresses appropriately for all occasions, just in case he is involved in an accident or other embarrassing situation; and

WHEREAS, deeply devoted to his family, Cade is the son of Joe and Vikki Morgan, and he has one brother, Jake; and

WHEREAS, a devout Christian, Mr. Morgan is an active member in his church, and he has served on mission projects in Mexico; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2006 legislative session, he has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Cade Morgan has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Joseph Cade Morgan for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Joe Haynes and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.
